| 10:30-11:30 AM | Image Dating
Vicki Casteel, Indiana State Archives
During the 19 th century, the materials used in the new field of photography evolved. Knowing when certain processes were popular can help narrow down not only the dates, but potentially who is in the photograph. This discussion will provide tips for dating your photographs. |
| 11:30-11:45 AM | Society of Indiana Archivists
Brenda Burk, IUPUI |
| 11:45-12:00 PM | Break |
| 12:00-1:00 PM | Lunch, Rm. 425 - SHRAB funding and networking
Jim Corridan, State Archivist |
| 1:00-2:00 PM | Getting It Done When You Can't
Alan January & Barb Wood, Indiana State Archives
Since 1991 volunteers at the Indiana State Archives have donated over 50,000 hours of time to a wide variety of projects, including: records processing, preservation, data entry, and outreach initiatives. This talk will cover every aspect of a successful volunteer program, including: recruitment, recognition, budgeting, and the things volunteers find rewarding about their work. |

Leveraging New Online Resources

Richard McCoy, Indianapolis Museum of Art

Exploration of ways Web 2.0 can help you perform traditional tasks, and real examples of how other institutions have put new online resources to work for them; e.g. the collections catalogue of public art at IUPUI "WikiProject Wikipedia Saves Public Art".
